Extension of the validity of the certification

Ladies and gentlemen, for reasons directly related to the outbreak of the novel Corona virus, not all activities for your re-certification could be completed before your management system certificates expire.

Nevertheless, the DQS was able to demonstrate through a remote certification activity, that the certified management system is still in place and effective.

Therefore, exceptionally, the original validity of the certificates mentioned below is extended by 6 (six) months or the completion of the audit procedure, whichever is earlier. Please note that after completion of the certification process, the certificates will be issued for 3 years from the expiration date of the original certificates.

The extension is subject to the ongoing maintenance of the implemented management system. A regular on-site audit is still required and will be carried out as soon as possible.

You will be asked to stop using this letter after the "extended expiration date" below.
